Project SUCCESS Rules of Conduct

We expect that all participants maintain good behavioral conduct while at the meetings as well as at service projects. Individuals are expected to follow the general rules (with or without assistance), which include:

- Stay with an assigned group
- Keep hands to self
- Follow directions
- Participate as fully as possible
- Care for personal belongings or request assistance as needed
- Use equipment and supplies appropriately without destruction
- Use friendly language (no abusive language)

Termination of Participation

Project SUCCESS reserves the right or to end the participation in the program if:

- The participant's actions cause injury to self, peers, or staff
- The participant exhibits inappropriate behaviors which may inhibit participation in community activities
- The participant engages in repetitive, aggressive, harmful, or disruptive behavior
- The participant fails to follow the general rules of conduct
- The participant does not meet the eligibility criteria for the program
